Article For Publication By Barry Tribuzio

“...an ever evolving trinity of form and visions.”

All bright summer haze will fade, a moments grace is but a memory..
A photograph of fleeting smiles, these as well will drift away.

It is all about Memory.

Experience

To share in this brief embrace we call Life.

A celebration and a mourning at the same time.

Every breath is an exhalation of time passing, into the crisp sharper focus of Autumn.

The air is more blue, a cooler aspect draws our eyes in anticipation of flowing spirits
And dreams far beyond those midsummer nights.

Three Galleries, an ever evolving trinity of form and visions, will attempt a summoning of these elusive ghosts of memory with sound,light and artistry.

Studio 23 presents it's annual Blacklight Art Show, a feast of glowing colors and shadowed contrasts in a light spectrum that may be unfamiliar to some, and a sense memory feast to others. These pieces are altered states of mind and float above their substrates, conjuring spells of form and color.

Live UV Painting and an LED Tunnel will further beguile all who attend.

Music will be performed. Sound, art and video in a fully immersive experience is guaranteed to warm the October chill and invite those ghosts to linger and commune with us.

The beauty of life is in recognition of its brevity.

October beckons us to gather falling leaves, to feel their brittle veins and know that this too, is Us.

Join the Dance, with the might of all senses, and revel in the Now.

Wormhole: FILMA Art Collective

The first collective effort in this new studio is an upgrade to the sound reactive light-tunnel, Wormhole. Standing at 8' high, 8' wide, and 20' long, Wormhole serves as a metaphor for the magnificence of transformation. Special thanks to William Burdette for envisioning and engineering a really fancy new frame and the fantabulous Robert Graf, the genius behind the electrons.
